Refusal by Banks to allow Migrants from Kashmir to Operate Accounts

162. SHRI ATAL BIHARI VAJPAYEE: SHRI PRAMOD MAHAJAN: SHRI KRISHAN LAL SHARMA:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that banks are refusing to allow the migrants from Kashmir to operate their accounts or encash their term deposit certificates, even when the children of these migrants are on the verge of starvation, as reported in Hindustan Times of the 16th April, 1990;

(b) whether it is also a fact that while in Kashmir, these migrants were often unable to withdraw their amounts because of curfew or due to lack of cash in banks in those difficult times; and

(c) whether Government have decided to take a sympathetic view of all migrants; if so, what are the details thereof; and if not, what are the reasons therefor?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI ANIL SHASTRI): (a) to (c). Owing to the extra-ordinary situation in Kashmir Valley which led to curfew for long periods of time and migration of bank employees due to the threat posed by the Militants, functioning of the banks in Kashmir Valley has been seriously affected. Government have requested the Government of Jammu & Kashmir to provide the necessary protection to the bank branchesand employees. Adequate currency has been supplied to the banks in the Valley. Since the bank accounts can be operated only at the respective bank branch, instructions have been issued to the banks to make expeditious arrangements for transfer of bank accounts/funds maintained with their branches in the Valley to some other branches outside the Valley, if so desired by their customers and to deal with such requests with utmost promptitude. Concessions like rescheduling the repayment of term loans in deserving cases by a period not exceeding one year and exemption from levy of penal interest or charging of compound interest in deserving cases have also been extended.

Clearance of Krishna River Water Irrigation Scheme

163. SHRI A. G. KULKARNI: SHRI VISHWASRAO RAM RAO PATIL:

Will the Minister of WATER RESOURCES be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that there are agreements between Maharashtra, Karnataka and Andhra Pradesh to utilise the allotted quota of Krishna river water and in this connection there is necessity for issuing early central clearance; and

(b) if so, what steps are being taken by the Central Government in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF WATER RESOURCES (SHRI MANUBHAI KOTADIA): (a) and (b). The use and development of Krishna Waters for irrigation purpose is regulated as per the water allocations made to the States of Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka and Maharashtra in the final order of the Krishna Water Disputes Tribunal. The projects in the Krishna Basin formulated by the State Governments are considered by the Centre for clearance only if the water utilisation proposed is within the allocation made by the Tribunal.
